Why we want you

Supermarket collections and permanent collection points are a crucial source of food for food banks. This role maximises food donations and ensures the food gets to the food bank efficiently.

What you will be doing

- Receiving food donations and thanking customers
- Sorting food ready for delivery back to the food bank
- Handing shopping lists to customers and asking them to donate food during the national collection

The skills you need

- Comfortable approaching people with a food donation ask
- Positive, friendly and enthusiastic

What's in it for you

- Raising awareness of the food bank in your local community
